What counts in a high school education is the day to day work of students. If every student makes an effort to learn each days lessons the result will be a good education. A high school diploma is equal to about 690 days of school or about 2,208 classes with lessons thoroughly prepared and carefully remembered and related to the lessons learned in other classes and on other days.

On April 20, 1956, Hillsboro High School was the scene of a beautiful Junior Prom. The theme song of the Prom was "Three Coins In A Fountain." The gym was decorated in an Italian mode with a fountain of running water, glittering tinfoil and lights. The punch bowl mounted on an Italian cart and a canopy carried out the mode farther. The prom color theme was red and white. Our handsome King Don Mitchell chose pretty Myrna Strait for his Queen. Other members of the royal court were last year's King and Queen, Arnold Urban and Patricia Vogt; Senior Representatives, David Hammer and Marta Hofmeister; Sophomore Representatives, Marvin Havlik and Darlene Slaback; and Freshman Representatives, Robert Mc Intyre and Carol Braithwaite. The charming crownbearers were Dennis Hallingstad and Mary Sebranek, who wore small crowns imitating the King and Queen. Music for the Prom was furnished by Howard Kenny and his band of Madison.

WILL

- We the Senior Class of 1957, being of sound mind and body, hereby wish to bequeath our personal belongings to the oncoming future generation.
- MARCELLA BENISH, noted for her ambition and good nature, wills these two assets to some lazy sour-puss in the Junior Class.
- DONNA BURCHELL, a firm admirer of poetry herself, will leave Pearl (alias Henry), for a short time to anyone who enjoys poetry also.
- LARRY CEPEK, is only too glad to leave his 4673/8 pound tuba to anyone who wants to carry it.
- JUDY CLARK, wills her "overtime parking" ticket to Pat Breidenstein.
- LARRY CLARK is leaving 1/4 of his car to Supe and Bernie, as he and Sandy make no use on the other 3/4.
- SANDRA ELLIS insists upon leaving her ability to drive the "Chev" from either the front or the back seat to Carol Barbour, who actually does quite well anyway.
- BARBARA FANTA, who comes first (after cows) wills her patience concerning the whole matter to Lou Ann Snyder.
- CAROL FAWCETT is in the process of designing a new wardrobe. She is willing her latest creation, a backless, strapless evening gown made of cellophane to anyone who plans on leaving on a trip to darkest Africa in the near future.
- BEN FILTER is leaving his ability to make a big laugh out of someone else's joke to Steve Subera.
- DARREL FISKE wills his ability to be seen and not heard in Physics class to Bill Sandman.
- JACK GEDDES wills his first cornet position to Beverly Haugh, who we hope will move into Jack's chair next year.
- JOANN GOODMAN wills her new and latest invention ---an "automatic face-slapper" to girls who go out with one-arm drivers.
- DARLENE HAVLIK and SHIRLEY QUINN will their ability to get along with the Wonewoc boys to Bonita Birdsill.
- MARY HORA wills her ability to look "innocent as a preacher" to Judy Haenel.
- PAUL HOTEK is going to will his one-third share of Carol Fawcett's and Myrna Strait's whisky distillery in the attic to Gene Levy.
- WAYNE JADOUL leaves his farm muscles to Mr. Kaczmarek.
- LEROY JANOUSEK BEQUEATHS his unmatched blush to Sondra Vlasak, who actually has one of her own, but will be only too happy to accept another one.
- BERNARD JELINEK, although it breaks his heart, is leaving his beer parlor and bar-maid to those Junior Boys.
- RONALD JELINEK wills his Davis Bookkeeping set to Mr. Cary, in hopes someone can finish it next year.
- MIKE KELLEY wills Myrna to anyone who would dare take her.
- MARY KOUBA is leaving her Elvis hair cut and twinkle toes to Mr. Voelz--a fond admirer of them.
- LOMA LIND is leaving her ability to go out seven nights a week and not be sleepy in school to Norma Jean Marshall.
- FRANCIS McCOIC is leaving his quiet ways to those Freshman Boys.
- HOWARD MILLER wills his superior Toni Home Permanent Kit to Bill Kouba who had bad luck the last time and got a "friz".
- DON MITCHELL wills his "keep your distance, girls" attitude to Jim Liska who is a real "ladies man".
- MIKE NELSON wills himself to Sharon Wyman.
- JAMES NOVACHEK will all his loud shirts except one and his saddle shoes to Bill Sandman.
- FRANCIS NOVACHE is leaving his reputation of genius, which he is famous for and his extra time for romance to Francis Blaha.
- NORMAN PARKER is willing his "knack for getting along with others" to Mr. Cary.
- BARBARA PHILLIPPI wills her ecstasy of speech---I know wonder think! to Jean Santas.
- BARBARA PLINER wills her ability to get a diamond to Judy Zahn.
- FRANCIS PRESLIK is leaving his old pick-up truck and the girls who have ridden in it to "Hank" Shore, who is really a "Lady-killer" in himself.
- LEONA REVELS wills her pleasing smile to Thelma Eldred.
- JOANN SANDERS wills her red hair to Mary Ann Jordan, who wants to prove she's an Irishman.
- DICK SANFORD is leaving his "love" for English class, his laziness, and----Mrs. Schroeder to some unsuspecting Junior boy.
- We have heard that a certain person named Bernard Cesnik uses lard on his hair to keep it in place. One of our dignified seniors, by the name of BOB SEBRANEK, wills his well combed hair to Bernie in hopes of helping the situation that prevails.
- JIM SHERMAN is leaving his scientific mind to John Goodman, who actually has one of his own, but needs another to put his own to work.
- JOHN SHIELDS wills his "harem" to Donovan Filter and Rodney Knadle.
- RITA STANEK is leaving all her qualities as a good senior to Lee Farra.
- MARY STERBA, who knows Doris Stanek is getting tired of A's in attitude, is passing on her ability to "whisper while you work".
- MYRNA STRAIT'S handbook on "How to Be Happy Though Going Steady" plus her "kiss-proof lipstick is willed to Carol Machovec.
- JEANNE SUBERA, although she doesn't desire the thought of it, wills Elvis Presley to Mr. White: something in remembrance of herself.
- RONALD SUBERA wills his Social Problems Book to anyone who will take it. P.S. Apply early and avoid the rush!
- SHARON SUBERA wills her ability to keep a secret in circulation to Janice Mitchell.
- GARY VAN ENKEVORT wills his big smile and hearty laugh to Mr. Hill.
- KAREN VITCENDA wills her headache of F.H.A. President plus three bottles of aspirins and six gray hairs to anyone who would care to take it.

And last by not least--to our worthy janitors, Mr. Potter and Mr. Johnson, we leave grease spots on the walls, the chewing gum which has been deposited under desks and tables, and the love letters on the desk tops. To the underclassmen, our good looks, and all our habits. (good or bad).

Particularly, we wish to leave our experience to the Junior Class, our leadership to the Sophomore Class and our ability to cooperate to the Freshmen.

And to our principal, we the Seniors of '57 do leave the right to Mr. Hill to hold the class of '57 in highest esteem when mentioning it to other classes.

To the faculty, the teachers who worked for and with us through our four long years of high school, we wish to leave a lasting remembrance that will forever hold a little spot in their hearts and---a "Thank You", we made it after all!

PROPHECY

Dear Diary,

I am so thrilled. I have just won $5,000 on the "Green for Go Lipstick" Contest. With this I have decided to visit all my old classmates from the class of '57. So, I took off in my D-36 one passenger plane. My first stop was in Glue City, Nebraska, where JOHN SHIELDS was prospering with a Glue Factory on the Retirement for Old Horses Plan. John's wife, JEANNE SUBERA, former bubble dancer has helped make quite a success of this business. In fact, she has even designed a dress of glue, "a real sticker", for RITA STANEK, "shimmery dancer". Rita works for the club El Sanford, the owner is DICK SANFORD, who won the club in a crap game.

While dining and dancing in the club I noticed LOMA LIND dancing with her latest husband. They just returned from Paris where Loma was awaiting a divorce from her eighth "Mistake". Course he doesn't speak a word of English but then, they say "Love is Blind"! I then got a scoop that BERNARD JELINEK runs a "bootlegging" still in the Blue Ridge Mountains of Kentucky. I was on my way out for a visit, but didn't make it that far as I stopped at the Hermit Hut of Mr. and Mrs. Ebenezer, MIKE Scrooge JELLEY. I know he was bad in high school, but when I saw his former lovely wife, now haggard from overwork, MYRNA STRAIT, "Holding a penny while he pinched it" Well that was too much, I knew I couldn't get a night's lodging there! So, I went into town to make accommodations at a hotel. Imagine my surprise when I walked through the doors slipped on a bar of soap and slid smack into MARCELLA BENISH, scrub lady there. Her husband, JACK GEDDES, is a janitor in the same establishment.

Well, after a visit with them, I decided I'd look around town and case the joint. Good Godfrey! I saw a downtown billboard that JAMES The Egg NOVACHEK was giving a demonstration on his famous egg recipes at the local auditorium. I was planning on attending, but I ran into another old classmate, DON MITCHELL, who invited me to go fishing at his man-made lake where he raises whales. After spending my weekend of fishing with Don I decided I'd bug out and buzz down to Florida. I'd heard that HOWARD MILLER was opening his Barber Shop, after remodeling it in a new ultra-modern fashion. Howard has been throwing away all his old, big razors, as he has a fine collection of little shavers. I went out to check at the Air Force Base to see if my plane had been repaired. There I ran into SANDRA ELLIS, a general in the Wac Corps now. Sandy has a great time making eyes at LARRY CLARK. We're so proud of Larry---- in another week, he'll be promoted to Private First Class, after eight years as a recruit. Sandy told me that a former classmate, MARY KOUBA, is now singing with the Metropolitan Opera. All we can say is the Metropolitan Opera isn't what it used to be!!

During my week in Florida I ran into RONALD JELINEK, who also runs a "clip joint", (barber Shop). Ron's in fine shape. Too bad I can't say the same for his customers. While I was in his shop I ran into BEN FILTER, another old classmate. Ben, who has traded in his Elvis cut for a Yul Brynner look was trying to sell Ronald a few of his "Hair for Wear" Toupe's. While visiting with Ron and Ben for awhile I found out that BARBARA PHILLIPPI, SHARON SUBERA, and KAREN VITCENDA were having a showing of their latest dress creations in New York. The Phillippi-Subera-Vitcenda brand is now a household word. I also discovered that JOANNE SANDERS is working for them as the head accountant. MARY HORA and DARLENE HAVLIK are working for them as the head of the seamstress department. Their motto: "A stitch in time, saves nine." Well I went back to the base and as I was heading for my plane, I bumped into SHIRLEY QUINN, an airline stewardess, and knocked her off her elevator shoes. Shirley has to wear these as she does not quite meet the height requirement. I also saw BARBARA PLINER, a famous author now, whose latest novel, "Strawberries in December", sold over 10,000 copies. Just as I was taking off I was fortunate to catch a glimpse of our glamorous movie star, CAROL FAWCETT. Although, I didn't get a very good look at her as she was hidden behind a three-foot cigarette holder. Carol is taking off for location of her next picture, "Fagsies at Dawn". Yes, some of our classmates have really advanced. Especially our girls. BARBARA FANTA has a beauty shop now--for men only. DONNA BURCHELL works as Miss Fanta's "manicurist." And the next thing I knew I was flying over NELSON'S Peak. The only mountain in the world where the grass is kept mowed. And look! There's MIKE on top with his lawn mower, waving! Well, all at once my plane started swerving and I had to make an emergency landing. After I was on the ground I investigated the strange weight that caused me to land. It was none other than an old classmate of mine, RONNIE SUBERA, a professional bum. After talking with Ronnie, I persuaded him into going back to his wife, MARY STERBA and their nineteen children. After this little accident I was about to hop into my plane, and who should I see but JoANN GOODMAN running across the field with her butterfly net. JoAnn has become one of the most noted butterfly catchers in the world. And next thing, I was in the air again. Crazy fool! What happened as I was soaring through the heavens. There went those "dare-devils" again in their super express--WAYNE JaDOUL and PAUL HOTEK. The next thing I saw was a big sign---The PARKER-McCOIC-FISKE Matreys Company. I decided I'd land and look around. NORMAN, FRANCIS, and DARREL are three of the "richest men in the world"--While browsing around who should I run into, but FRANCIS PRESLIK their chief mattress tester. Francis told me, between snores, that he first got his inspiration for this job in Social Problems class back in his High School days. Well, I then received a tip that "Rags to Riches", the LEROY JANOUSEK was having a big party in Corpus Christi, Texas. Leroy got his fortune by striking oil one day as he was digging graves in the Corpus Christi cemetery, where he was a caretaker. I then flew to a small town in Texas. I looked around town a little and bought a newspaper. And on the front page there was a story on two of my old classmates, LARRY CEPEK and FRANCIS NOVACHEK. It seems they are having a battle over whether or not the Einstein Theory is correct. As I made my way down main street who should I run into but JUDY CLARK and LEONA REVELS. They told me they are both working for the Be Kind to Old Teacher's Association. Other than this, dear Diary, I guess I visited almost all my classmates. Except for GARY VAN ENKEVORT, BOB SEBRANEK, AND JAMES SHERMAN. It seems they took off on a rocket ship to the moon. We can only guess what they have been doing--but I'll bet they'll give those mountains a rough time. Well, Diary, I think we've made a success of this prophecy--aren't we lucky no one knows who wrote it?

HISTORY

In September of 1954, we, the Seniors, entered our first year of High School, as scared, eager Freshmen. Our dazed officers were JoAnn Goodman, President; Eldon Breidung, Vice-President; Howard Miller, Secretary; and Bernard Jelinek, Treasurer. Our advisors were Mrs. Dunham and Mr. Hendrickson. Later Mrs. Dunham was replaced by Mr. MacDonald.

Initiation was a much dreaded but very memorable occasion. Our Student Council representatives were Glenn Demar and Larry Clark. Our representatives for the Prom and Homecoming were JoAnn Goodman and Howard Miller.

Our Sophomore year, started with the initiation of the incoming Freshmen. Our Homecoming representatives were Marcella Benish and LeRoy Janousek. For Prom, Michael Kelley and Myrna Strait represented our proud Sophomore Class.

Our officers for that year included: Larry Cepek, President; Michael Kelley, Vice-President; Don Mitchell, Secretary; and Larry Clark, Treasurer. Our advisors were Mr. Mac Donald and Mr. Hendrickson. The Student Council representatives were Roger Subera and Dick Sanford.

Our 55-56 year started with the election of officers who were--Don Mitchell, President; Bob Sebranek, Vice-President; Mary Kouba, Secretary; LeRoy Janousek, Treasurer.

Our advisors were Mr. Mac Donald and Mr. Hendrickson. Student Council representatives were Carol Fawcett and Jim Sherman. Mary Kouba and Ben Filter were the Homecoming representatives.

Our major event of the year was the Prom. The committees were organized and work began. The theme was "Three Coins In A Fountain." King Don Mitchell chose Myrna Strait as his Queen.

In the year 56-57, we acquired the dignified name of Seniors. The exuberant officers were LeRoy Janousek, President; Michael Nelson, Vice-President; Mary Sterba, Secretary; and Bob Sebranek, Treasurer. Our advisors were Mr. Marshall and Mrs. Lindsay. Our Student Council representatives were Carol Fawcett and Jim Sherman.

The Homecoming King and Queen were the Senior representatives, Mary Sterba and Larry Cepek. At the Prom we were proud to be represented by Don Mitchell and Myrna Strait and LeRoy Janousek and Carol Fawcett.

Our representatives for the Sweetheart dance were Carol Fawcett and Jim Sherman. Karen Vitcenda was our Ski Queen representative at Westby.

Our Annual editors were Mary Sterba and Francis Novachek. Other events of the Seniors were the class Play, class trip, and our much anticipated commencement exercises.

Judy -
I'll always remember all the fun we've had this year. Remember all the walks we took? (Ha-Ha)
Especially the one down the road by Jean Plinners.
I hope we continue to be good friends next year also.

a friend always
Mary Joyce

Judy -
Best of luck to a sweet girl. He-Bille member our party.
Class Judy Hardwick

Best of luck to a sweet freshie. I hope you will enjoy your next 3 years in H.H.S. a go.
Gloria Mitchell

Judy,
The best of luck
to a nice "Freshie".
I hope you enjoy your next 3 years as much as, I'm sure,
you enjoyed your freshman year.
a Soph.
Joyce H.

Judy -
Best of luck to a sweet classmate, Luck
in Band.
